

PAUL SIMON
PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE
invites you to

TOPIC:
"Civility in Public Affairs"

LECTURE LUNCHEON

WITH AMBASSADOR HARRIET
ELAM-THOMAS

Thursday, March 21 | 11:30 am - 1:00 pm

SIU Carbondale Student Center Ballroom B

RSVP online at <http://bit.ly/elamthomasluncheon> by Mon. March 18

Harriet Elam-Thomas grew up in Boston, studied at Simmons College and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and enjoyed a rich and consequential career as an American diplomat.

She represented the United States in Senegal, the Ivory Coast, Mali, Greece, Belgium, and Turkey. She served as the American ambassador to Senegal. She retired at the rank of Career Minister.

She is currently the director of the Diplomacy Program at the University of Central Florida in Orlando, Florida and is the author of Diversifying Diplomacy: My Journey from Roxbury to Dakar.

Individuals with disabilities are welcomed. Call SIU Disability Support Services at 618/453-5738 to request accommodations.