

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM

FALL 2020

NORTH HALL

Mitchell Gallery

Stitched Intent - August 20th - November 6th

Stitched Intent plugs into ongoing conversations in our families, our media, and our government. Unrest and turmoil rife the streets, while viral outbreaks and uncertain futures bring worry home.

Continuum Gallery

Woven - August 28th - December 12th

A collection of historical textiles from the University Museum's permanent collection.

Atrium Gallery

Curator Choice - September 1 - October 10th

Select works from the University Museum's permanent collection.

SOUTH HALL

Hall of Art

The Seven Deadly Sins of Trump - November 3rd - December 12th

The seven Deadly Sins of Trump is an exploration of the traditional imagery of the seven deadly sins applied to the current US President, Donald Trump.

Study Gallery

United We Stand - August 25th - December 12th

This exhibition will feature photographs taken at the various peaceful protests that took place throughout the Southern Illinois Region as part of the Black Lives Matter Movement.

International Gallery

Healing Touch - August 25th - October 3rd

This exhibition features selections from the University Museum's medical collections.

Creative Practice - October 6th - December 12th

This exhibit features the works of Lavinia Roberts, as she uses the medium of masks and puppetry to explore concepts such as social justice, feminism, exploring privilege, neurodiversity, and stewardship of the environment.

West Gallery

Richard Cox 2020 - August 18th - December 12th

This body of work explores concepts such as color, texture and negative/positive space all within the artists visceral impulse to create, express and communicate.

South Gallery

The Color of Gardens - August 18 - October 31st

The color of gardens is a retrospective look at the multitude of styles and mediums Joan Skiver-Levy has used to pursue her creativity.

Museum Address
1000 Faner Drive
Carbondale IL 62901

Museum Hours
Tues - Fri: 10-4
Sat: 1-4
Sun - Mon: Closed