

HOPE FOR JUSTICE

The Fight to End Modern Slavery

Join us, Wednesday, April 7th at 6 p.m. for a virtual event featuring Dr. Richard Schoeberl, an expert in national security and law enforcement, as he discusses his work investigating human trafficking and the global effort to combat its spread.

Dr. Richard Schoeberl has over 25 years of experience, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Central Intelligence Agency's National Counter Terrorism Center (NCTC). Before these organizations, he worked as a special agent investigating violent crime, international terrorism, trafficking, and organized drugs.

In addition to the FBI and NCTC, Schoeberl is an author of numerous articles on terrorism and security and is currently a professor of Criminology and Homeland Security at Martin Methodist College. Richard also works with Hope for Justice – a global nonprofit that exists to bring an end to modern slavery by preventing exploitation, rescuing victims, restoring lives and reforming society.
