

STORM LAKE

GO INSIDE THE FAMILY-RUN NEWSPAPER KEEPING LOCAL JOURNALISM ALIVE

COMMUNITY FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26 • 6PM
Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library • SIUC

Free and open to the public. Individuals with disabilities are welcomed.

Call (618) 453-4344 to request accommodations | DIRECTIONS

Join us for a film screening and community conversation on the critical importance of community journalism. What do we lose when local journalism is gone?

Enjoy a screening of the Independent Lens film, Storm Lake which highlights the challenges of a family-run newspaper as they struggle to report critical news to their community in an increasingly digital world. Afterward, join a community conversation exploring the topics addressed in the film such as the national decline of local news and reporting.

DISCUSSION MODERATOR:

Jennifer Fuller, Associate Director of News and Public Affairs,
WSIU Public Radio

PANELISTS:

Annie Hammock, Managing Editor of The Daily Egyptian newspaper at SIUC and Renee Trappe, group editor of the Southern Illinois LOCAL Media Group and Deputy Managing Editor of The Daily Herald.
